MRS. KING

HAS SECURED CANTON ATTORNEYS TO FIGHT THE CASE

Wife of the Damascus Physician Will Oppose His Suit For Divorce. The Alimony Feature.

Dr. Frank M. King, the Damascus physician, who recently filed a sensational petition for divorce from Ida M. King, will not secure the desired decree without encountering opposition.

Attorneys Webber & Turner of Canton, have been retained by Mrs. King to look after her interests and they have taken leave to answer in the case. It is said that while Mrs. King will not make violent objection to the divorce decree she will contest his claim for alimony.

It will be remembered that Dr. King, in his petition made allegations of infidelity concerning his wife and named E. R. Merrill, a street railway promoter as co-respondent. It was claimed by him that Merrill, under the pretense of family relationship entered his home and there debauched his wife. Illicit relations between Mrs. King and the railway man were cited with dates and places given. These conditions became such, the plaintiff alleged, that he could no longer endure them and he appealed to the court for relief.

The appearance of the petition was followed by a published statement from Merrill to the effect that Dr. King's declarations were entirely without foundation in fact; that Mrs. King and himself had been done a great wrong by the allegations of the petition. He said that as a friend of the family he had gone to the home with none but the best motives and that there was no occasion whatever for the suspicion of wrongdoing in the mind of the doctor. He said in conclusion that the charges would be the product of a diseased brain.—Youngstown Telegram.

SPEAKER CANNON

IS FIGHTING ROOSEVELT ON THE TARIFF.

Open Break Between "Uncle Joe" and Teddy Over Revision Is Now Imminent.

Washington, Nov. 19.—An open break between President Roosevelt and Speaker Joseph G. Cannon appears imminent.

Tariff revision is the cause. While President Roosevelt is contemplating a special message for the latter part of the 59th congress, urging revision of the tariff, "Uncle Joe" Cannon is getting ready to lead the committee on ways and means with "stand pat" members so that the tariff may not be touched as long as this congress lasts.

The news has leaked out that Speaker Cannon is distrustful of four Republicans who are now on the ways and means committee, the committee where all tariff legislation must originate.

Representative Bailewick, of Wisconsin; Tawney, of Minnesota; McCall, of Massachusetts, and Payne, of New York, have showed recent signs of becoming converts to the revision idea.

These four, by combining with the six Democratic members of the committee, would take the majority control away from the Republicans.

AN APACHE WARRIOR

Has Sought to Prevent the Writing of the History of His Life.

Lawton, Okla., Nov. 19.—Geronimo, the Apache warrior, has sought to prevent the writing of the history of his life by Superintendent S. M. Barrett, of the Lawton city school, because the superintendent would not agree to pay the bonus demanded by the chief. Barrett proposed to divide the royalty with Geronimo but the chief demands a heavy bonus in advance. This Barrett would not agree to pay.

MORE KILLED

by Railroads in Chicago in Eleven Months Than in the Whole of England.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—"I believe that more people were killed in Cook county in railroad accidents in the last eleven months than in the whole of England during the same period."

That was the statement of Coroner Hoffman. The coroner reported 321 deaths in railroad accidents in the past eleven months. The total number of inquests held was 3,173.

Farm For Sale.

The undersigned offers at private sale the William Fore, or commonly known as the "Ore Bank" farm, in Osnaburg township, Stark County, Ohio, located on the public road two miles east of the village of Osnaburg and six miles east of Canton, O., and containing one hundred and sixty-two acres more or less. Said farm is in a fair state of cultivation and has about thirty acres of timber, consisting largely of chestnut and white oak. The improvements consist mainly of a good brick house of eight rooms and a hill and a fair bank barn. Also other outbuildings. On the premises are two never-failing springs of water, one spring being convenient to the house. The farm is offered on very easy terms, and if sold a small amount will be demanded at the delivery of the deed by the purchaser giving his notes on long payments for the unpaid purchase money secured by mortgage.

For further information as to price, terms, etc., call on or address H. W. Hoseler, Canton, Ohio. Intwtdfr.

UNCLE JOE CANNON

Declares He is as Much of a "Stand Patter" as Ever.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Uncle Joe Cannon, speaker-to-be of the next house, after a conference with the president, declared that he was as much of a stand patter as ever.

"Do you think there will be any tariff legislation attempted by the next congress?" he was asked.

"How can I tell what all of 386 men are going to do this winter?" he replied. "If a tariff measure be introduced, and congress should struggle over it for 12 months and at the end of that time a sufficient number of votes be marshalled to pass it and the country would be held up by the tail all the time, there would probably be found just as many outrageous things in the new schedule as are now charged against the old one."

IN CANTON

"SOCKLESS" DAVIS SAID HE HAD BEEN WORKING.

But It Was in the Workhouse, and When He Struck Youngstown He Was Pinched.

Youngstown Vindicator:—Charles "Sockless" Davis, a familiar figure in police station, got in again last night. Sockless was wanted this time for alleged grand larceny committed August 9, when, it is alleged, he stole clothes from Rock Yano. Ben Williams made the arrest.

Davis earned his unique title when he strolled into police court one day last summer minus shoes and stockings. He was ordered out of town then, but asked:

"How can I travel without shoes?" The court at that time secured some footgear for Sockless and he departed. Since then he has operated extensively in Akron and elsewhere.

"I worked in Canton," he said. "What at?" asked the court.

"In the workhouse," Sockless answered.

Then he pleaded not guilty to the charge of grand larceny. The police believe they have a good case against him. His last offense here was having in his possession the bell of a phonograph stolen from an East Commerce street residence. When not working in some workhouse Sockless amuses him self mending umbrellas and trying to drink all the booze in sight.

MAYOR BELL

NOT LIKELY TO PRESS CLAIMS FOR ELECTION

The Recent Democratic Candidate for Representative Will Probably Accept the Official Count.

Massillon, O., Nov. 19.—From present indications Mayor Bell will not contest the election of Representative Welker, who received a plurality of 109 votes at the recent election, according to the official count made public Friday.

Representative Welker has already received his certificate of election. A contest would be based upon the ballots cast in several wards in the county and it would be necessary for each voter to be summoned to a hearing and an expression obtained of each as to how he cast his ballot for representatives. This is almost an endless task.

The contest has been dropped and Mayor Bell's friends will confine their efforts in another line in his behalf.
